

The Biomedical Education Advancement Unit (BEAU) is an exciting new initiative focused on excellence in teaching and promoting staff development in biomedical education

Invitation to the launch of the Biomedical Education Advancement Unit and lecture by Professor Ian Hughes:

How Teaching Needs to Change
– and how we will be doing it in 2020

Thursday 22 October, 2009
4.00–5.15 pm – followed by refreshments
Campus Centre Cinema
Monash University Clayton campus

Invitation

MONASH University
Medicine, Nursing and Health Sciences

Professor Ian Hughes

Professor Ian Hughes is a Senior Fellow of the Faculty of Biological Sciences at the University of Leeds, and a world renowned expert in the field of bioscience education, particularly in the development and evaluation of innovative teaching methods. He is co-director of the Higher Education Academy Centre for Bioscience (UK) and part of the management team for the IDEAS

CETL (interdisciplinary ethics teaching), and holds a number of eminent appointments in teaching and research.

RSVP

Jane Sun

jane.sun@med.monash.edu.au

by 12 October 2009

MONASH University

Medicine, Nursing and Health Sciences