

MAIN THEMES	DISASTER AND VIOLENCE: FLIGHT AND FORCED MOVEMENT	MOBILE BODIES: SHIFTS IN HEALTH AND ILLNESS	CHANGING PATTERNS OF INFECTION, DISEASE AND HEALTH STATUS	HEALTH CARE, WELL BEING AND IDENTITY: GLOBAL AND LOCAL MEANINGS	EMERGENT IDENTITIES AND SOCIAL MOVEMENTS
--------------------	---	--	---	---	---

Sunday PM 1.30 – 3.00	VIOLENCE AND ITS MEANING IN TIMOR LESTE I	THE ECONOMIC IMPERATIVE IN EAST AND SOUTHEAST ASIA	SHIFTING CONTEXTS OF HIV	COMMUNITY IDENTITIES IN BALI SINCE THE 2002 BOMBINGS	CULTURAL BELIEFS, DEFINITIONS AND UNDERSTANDINGS
	Explaining patterns of violence in Timor-Leste: Empirical and interpretative approaches. Dennis Shoemith	Temporary migration: Rural household livelihood strategies in a transitional period of the economy of Viet Nam. Bang Pham	Vulnerable but feeling safe: HIV risk among male rural-to- urban migrant workers in Chengdu, China. Lin Li	The role of local culture in suicide prevention in Bali. Yessi Octaria	Girls just want to have fun: The changing Srey Kalip in Cambodia. Katia Peterson
	In the shadows of political conflict in Timor Leste: Coping and sustainability of the national TB control program. Joao Martins	Health at the border: migrant labour, work, environment and illness in Southeast Asia. Amarjit Kaur	Mobility, pathology and livelihoods: ethnography of forms of mobility in/from Nepal. Jeevan Sharma	Decentralization and autonomy in Bali: Challenges and opportunities for community health. Muninjaya	HIV/AIDS and emerging identities in PNG. Fiona Hukula
	Conflict, health and vulnerability: The impact of forced displacement in East Timor. Ernest Jaya	Dislocation: Locating an enquiry into rickshaw pullers in New Delhi. Ajay Singh	Determining vulnerability: Chinese Women and HIV/AIDS Anna Hayes	A new social movement: 'Ajeg Bali' and community Wellbeing. Belinda Lewis	When PPS Fails: Surveillance and sampling methods in suspicious settings. Herick Aeno

Monday AM 11.00 – 12.30	DISASTER AND ITS AFTERSHOCKS	GENDER, MIGRATION AND WORK	SOCIAL CHANGE AND EMERGING EPIDEMICS	INDIGENOUS & TRIBAL HEALTH IN LOCAL COMMUNITIES	COPING WITH CHRONICITY AND DISABLEMENT
	After the bombs: Survivors and their communities talk about rebuilding lives after the 2002 Hebrew University terrorist attack. Jen Hester-Moore	Reproductive health concerns and needs of migrants from Burma in Thailand. Therese Caouette	The relationship between the SARS-associated stigmatization in the post- SARS era of Hong Kong and the impact on public health policy in epidemic control. Judy Yuen-man Siu	Indigenous (Maori) and Identity Discourse: Exploring the Intersectionality of the Indigeneity, Disability and Gender Identity Frameworks Huhana Hickey	Understanding resilience in adults with limited mobility. Bhensri Naemiratch
	Psychosocial and mental health responses following conflict and disaster in the Solomon Islands. Anthony Zwi	The experience of 'work' and 'wellbeing': Who am I? - Pushpa's story. Surekha Garimella	The dynamics of infectious diseases among the Tay and the Hmong in Vietnam. Nguyen Tran Lam	Idioms of health and well being for the Paniyan tribal communities in Wayanad, Southern India. Sumant Badami	Cultural understandings of stroke, its sequelae and health seeking behaviour in rural Indonesia. Meriel Norris
	The impact of forced displacements in communities of protracted conflict in Sri Lanka. Ernest Jaya	Embarking on shifting ground: place and identity among migrating women in Yunnan Province, China. Joy Bai	Responding to risk and drug use in Asia Pacific. Robert Power	The cultural role of obesity and its impact on the health of Maori and Pacific Island migrants in Australia. Lena Rodriguez Overseas trained doctors in an Indigenous community. Vanessa Lee	The path less travelled to genetics and ethics expertise: parenting children with rare genetic disorders. Ruth Fitzgerald

Monday PM 3.00 – 5.30	VIOLENCE AND ITS MEANING IN TIMOR LESTE II	RURAL MOBILITY AND MIGRATION	PRODUCING AND REPRODUCING INEQUITIES	TRANS-NATIONAL AND TRANS-CULTURAL HEALTH PROVISION	DISABILITY AND IDENTITY
	Reproductive health in conflict: Challenges in responding to the 2006 crisis in Timor Leste. Kayli Wayte	China's health transition: moving forward and backwards. Rural migrant workers' access to medical services. Beatriz Carrillo-Garcia	When vaginal practices are working against health and gender equity: Evidence from the 2006 Vaginal Practices Survey. Terence Hull	Familial bonds and boarding passes: Understanding caregiving in a transnational context. Bianca Brijnath	Disabled women, their intimacy, reproductive health and sexuality: A theoretical review. Simonetta Cengarle
	New country, old problem: Unsafe abortion in East Timor Suzanne Belton	Multiple entities and social movements that contribute to the wellbeing of the rural poor and migrants in Thailand. Mary Ditton	The booming industries of vaginal treatments in Jakarta. Iwu Utomo	Transition out of poverty into poverty: Health and wellbeing of immigrants in Australia. Victoria Team	OKU - OK or not OK? Disability construction and identity in Malaysia. Lynne Norazit
	"Not the authors of this crisis": Youth perspectives from Timor Leste. Kiera Zen	Understanding the impact of population mobility on health status in a developing country. Salut Muhidin	Transitions in the Thai health care system: HIV/AIDS, migration and remittances Stian Thoresen	Community of practice in practice: A strategic approach to transculturally appropriate mental health service delivery to African migrant community in Western Australia. Peters Ibekwe	Narratives of sight loss and identity. Clare Thetford

Tuesday AM 11.00 – 12.30	RESPONDING TO SUFFERING: RECREATING IDENTITY	MOVING BODIES, MODERN TECHNOLOGIES	HISTORICAL FOOTINGS OF CHANGING HEALTH	NEGOTIATING IDENTITY IN CONTEXTS OF RESISTANCE	CULTURE AND IDENTITY THROUGH IMAGE AND NARRATIVE
	Unpacking longings to return: Iraqi refugee women in rural Australia Katie Vasey	The global quest for therapy: medical travel in Asia. Andrea Whittaker	From colony to metropole: the internationalization of colonial public health efforts in the Philippines. Mercedes Planta	Sexual violence among childbearing women in Northeastern Thailand Amornrat Sricamsuk	Picturing culture: Reading the work of new health videographers in Vietnam, Mexico and the US. Liz Cartwright
	Re-authoring the self: Spirituality and suffering in the context of disaster. Tamasin Ramsay	"Ultrasound is enough! I don't need antenatal care." Antenatal care in urban and rural Shanxi Province, China. Yu Gao	Tuberculosis among Māori between 1918 and 1945. Catherine Finn	Construction of gender in Vietnam: In pursuit of the "three criteria". Hoang Tu Anh Men working for men's alternative identity in community-based domestic violence prevention. Romeo Lee	Counter narrative perspective: Iranians experience on hospitality in Australia. Mammad Aidani
	Reconstructing the self: Women's experiences of reconstruction and displacement in post-disaster Nias. Megan Jennaway	Medical tourism: Globalisation and the commodification of health. Jocelyn Tomkinson	Becoming a mother in Thailand: How it was then, how it is now. Penny Haora	Health and Women's Activism in Rural China. Tamara Jacka	Identity for urban families in the promotional images of Indonesian family planning program. Sandra Sudjudi